

The youngest hotel GM/Hotel Manager ever in the history of the country Md Al-Amin, has brought significant positive changes in the hotel industry. He is currently providing services to The Westin Dhaka, and recently was GM of Six Seasons hotel, and under his management, the hotel has ranked top on TripAdvisor for quite a long time. His colleagues and team members describe him as someone with a vision who does not mind taking risks to reach his goals.

Previously he had the opportunity to lead the Sales & Marketing of The Westin Dhaka for around three years and successfully could retain the leading position in a highly competitive market. Under his portfolio, he managed Room Sales, Banquet Sales, Marketing, Digital Marketing, Public Relations, and Partnership of Westin Dhaka.

He started my journey at Grameenphone in 2005 and moved to hotel management in 2008 with Pan Pacific Sonargaon Dhaka. Eventually, then start to work at The Westin Dhaka as a Director of Sales & Marketing after he left Westin to join a local boutique hotel (Six seasons Hotel) as a General Manager in 2019. started at Six Seasons Hotel as the youngest Bangladeshi to work in such a post at a boutique hotel.
